YEAR PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS

Foreword

This year's staff has labored under the glimmer of midnight's oil-wicks long and often to rivet securely together the numerous patches of campus life into a fabric of truthful tracery. Our reward shall be realized only when the ravages of Tomorrow have passed leaving the stitches still clearly wrought and strongly meshed in the iron web of Memory.

For the structure which I raise,
Time is with materials filled,
My todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which I build.

—Longfellow.

I am the builder—
Who walks with me
The glory of up-raised cities shall see,
And the towers that rise
To the top of the skies,
For I am the builder,—
Come walk with me.

Every season hath its pleasures;
 Spring may boast her flowery prime,
 Yet the vineyard's ruby treasures
 Brighten Autumn's sob'r' time.

There is something in the autumn that
 Is native to my blood—
 Touch of manner, hint of mood;
 And my heart is like a rhyme,
 With the yellow and the purple and the Crimson keeping time.

FOOTBALL

J. WALKER THOMAS
Manager

"Rosie" was on the job all season keeping the needs of the squad satisfied. His blue beret came in for a lot of comment at games.

JASPER COLEBANK
Athletic Director, Head Coach

At the head of athletics at Fairmont since 1924, and faced with a new squad this year after winning the Conference title in '34, the Coach went to work in his steady manner to do the best with what he had. In addition to football he coaches both basketball and baseball, and teaches courses in Physical Education.

JAMES SAMPSON
Captain

"Slick" led the team during his third year of participation in football at Fairmont. Until he was forced out of the game by a severe injury at mid-season his speed and elusive foot work was the mainstay of the team.

FULTZ, End

"Fultz" was a tower of strength all season and gained special honors for his long and accurate punting.

HAMMON, Fullback

Hammon earned the Captaincy of next year's team by his ability to plunge into the line hard and by his bullet-like passes.

KUNDRAKIK, Center

"Polly" was the lightest man on the squad and its hardest fighting member. His aggressiveness overcame his handicap and won him due honors.

THE SEASON

With only two regulars left from the previous year's squad, Coach Colebank was faced at the opening of the year with the task of building a new football team to replace the machine that had won the Conference the year before. The new material was for the most part young and inexperienced, so the task was to build for the future rather than the season at hand. Assistant Coach Jones and the "Coach" went to work with a will, and although only two victories in eight starts were recorded, our prospects for the next two years in football are bright.

FAIRMONT, 0: WEST LIBERTY, 13

The schedule opened after only ten days of practice with the Panhandle Hilltoppers. It was a proposition of too much Rometo, for the flashy little halfback had too much speed. The first half saw West Liberty do the only scoring of the game, for we came back in the second half to hold the opposition scoreless.

FAIRMONT, 0; CONCORD, 20

The first game away from home took the Teachers way down to the extreme southern part of the state for what turned out to be a tragedy of errors. Concord's first touchdown came

HOOVER, Halfback

"Buck" was a freshman but his willingness to learn quickly earned him a place on the team.

JOYCE, Tackle

"Bernie" did not have much experience, but turned in a good account of himself through the season.

DUVALL, Halfback

"Deacon's" speed was valuable around the ends when the line proved too tough.

IN REVIEW

as the result of some confusion over covering punts and Fairmont never got over the shock. Before the game was ended Concord had crossed the goal line three times. Fairmont fought hard but lacked the final punch, for although we rushed the ball to the five-yard line three times we never were able to score.

FAIRMONT, 0; GLENVILLE, 6

In one of the most stubbornly fought battles of the year, our failure to build a successful defense against passes proved our downfall. After playing the first half in mid-field, Glenville was able to get a 20-yard pass away in the third quarter. The try for point was blocked and neither Fairmont nor Glenville threatened to score for the balance of the game.

FAIRMONT, 7; CALIFORNIA, 13

Fairmont scored first in the only encounter of the season with teams from outside the state, which proved to be the hardest game of the year. California came back to tie the score at 7-all in the second quarter. Late in the second period Captain Sampson was severely injured returning a punt, and the game slowed up. In the last two minutes of the game California got a pass away and the aerial attack again proved State's Waterloo.

BYER, Quarterback
George was a dependable ball carrier and was in there fighting all the time.

FLEMING, Tackle
Playing his last year, Sterling had his best season. Kept out part of the year by an injury, his absence was a loss.

SPRING, Guard

"Dutch" was shifted from center to guard this year and made history by his power in his new position.

FAIRMONT, 20; SHEPHERD, 12

We garnered the first victory of the year at the expense of the Teachers from the eastern panhandle. "Bull" Hammon proved too strong for Shepherd's line and his savage plunges gave us our three touchdowns. The game finished in a blaze of excitement, for in the last five minutes of play Hanna intercepted a pass intended for Hoover behind the Shepherd goal line and ran through the whole team 104 yards for a touchdown. He came right back and took a pass and got away for a 67-yard scamper for the second marker for the enemy.

FAIRMONT, 0; SALEM, 27

On the second trip of the year we had high hopes but the speed of the Tigers was too great. Their lightning-like halfback, Uram, circled our ends almost at will and four times during the long afternoon Salem crossed our line. It was home-coming game at Salem and the band went along to liven up the affair. The "Scarlet Wave's" martial music must have been an inspiration to the Ten Milers.

SNODERLY, End

"June's" trick knee prevented him from being in every game, but he gave everything he had.

MUSTACHIO, Guard

"Keg's" good nature was not often apparent to his opponents. He could be depended on to make a hole when we needed a gain through the line.

HAWKINS, End

Bob was back after being out a year and took ample care of his end of the line.

FAIRMONT, 10; POTOMAC STATE, 0

The Keyser Catamounts came over to give the home club their second victory on Rosier Field. The first half went scoreless but the Catamounts' line cracked during the third quarter and Hammon plowed through for a touchdown and Fultz converted. Late in the last period when the Keyser line tightened up after a sustained drive Fultz was called back for a placement kick and he scored a perfect field goal from the 20-yard line.

FAIRMONT, 6; BETHANY, 27

In one of the coldest football days on record the wind blew over the Ohio River flats at Warwood and brought Bethany a win. After a beautiful first quarter, in which the Teachers played Bethany off their feet, our forward passing jinx caught up with us and Kleven scored four touchdowns via the air. Late in the game Hammon bucked the line for our only touchdown.

BASKETBALL

"Shang" played his third year of varsity basketball this season, having won his position as regular center during his freshman year, where his extreme height has been getting the tip-off for Fairmont. He has proved a willing pupil for Coach Colebank and in addition to improving his game in the center ring he has developed his shooting ability to a high degree of excellence. "Shanghai" hails from Fairmont, where he was a star at West Fairmont High. He is one of the most popular students on the campus. He adds to his laurels each year by his star roles in the T. B. I. shows where his real talent for the stage gets ample opportunity for expression. His serio-comic renditions of mountain ballads are locally famous.

FULTZ, Guard

"Buzz" continued his sterling work at guard for his second year. His accuracy at long range accounted for many field goals.

DUVALL, Guard

"Deac's" passing game was a feature of the season. His speed in getting the ball to the fore court accounted for many points.

KERNS, Center

Kerns was nearly always able to get the tip off and his accuracy under the basket pulled many a game out of the fire.

JUDY, Center

As tall as Kerns, Judy was used as a reserve man. He was handicapped by getting a late start for practice.

THE SEASON

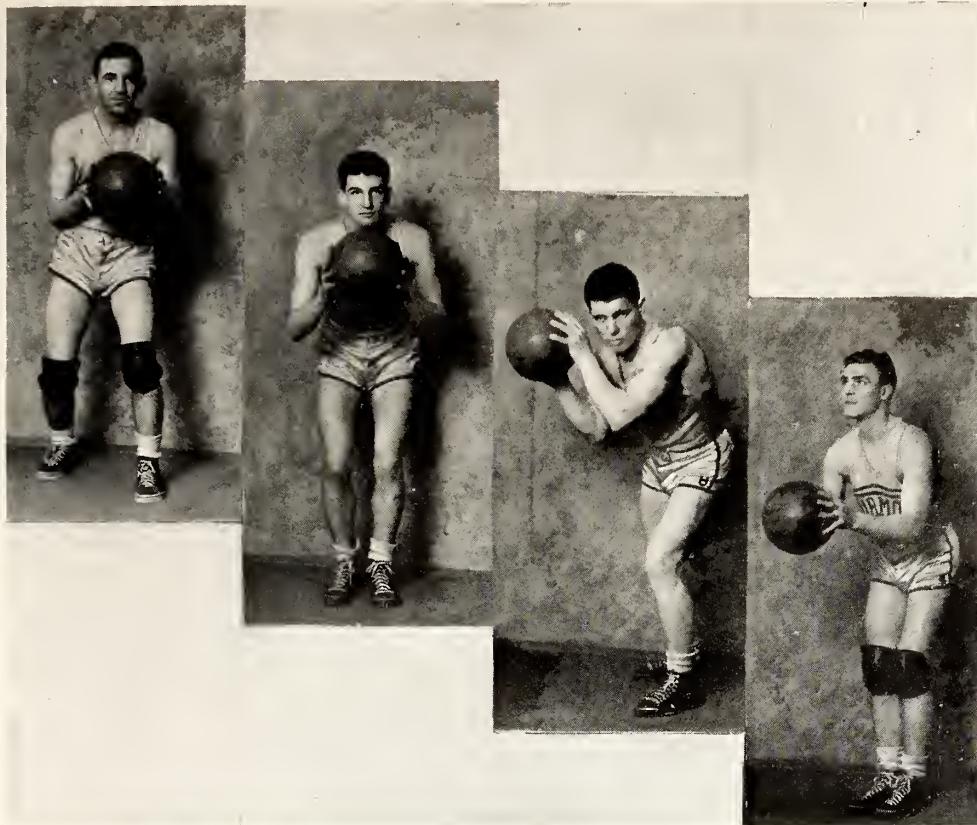

Starting the season with a team of veterans, but handicapped by their slight stature, and with writers in the local press predicting a poor season, "Coley" played a twenty-eight game schedule and recorded ten wins for the Fighting Teachers. In spite of the fact that losses overbalanced victories the season was successful because the team had to overcome their lack of "heft" with sheer fight.

Opening the season away from home we fell victim to Marietta, to the tune of 46-21. The second game was away from home and played at Waynesburg before the holidays resulted in another defeat, 45-21.

On January 6th we went to Buckhannon, where Wesleyan laced us to the very close score of 39-37. On the next night we played our first home game against Morris-Harvey, the only team we met all season whose weight compared favorably with ours,, and Fairmont came out on the long end of a 57-27 score.

The next venture was away from home and Glenville handed out a 53-40 beating. The next two games were at home and we divided the honors of the series, getting a 44-32 whipping from Waynesburg, but coming right back to take sweet revenge on the Salem Tigers to the tune of 38-35.

We tried Glenville again on January 20th but failed to make the grade and came out second best, 63-47. Then on the 24th we invaded the panhandle, defeating West Liberty 52-35 but falling before Bethany 44-38. On the night of the 30th we journeyed over to Salem and gave the Tigers their second beating by our hands of the year, 41-40.

TRUE, Guard

Playing his freshman year, Phil made a valuable reserve man.

ANKROM, Forward

Blaine was another freshman who shows much promise and got several chances to prove his ability.

BYER, Forward

George, a sophomore made a good running mate for Sampson in the fore court.

SAMPSON, Forward

The fastest man on the team, "Slick" was deadly on his shots from the corners. Despite his slight build his floor game was sparkling.

IN REVIEW

Marshall came to Fairmont on February 1st and took our measure 64-36, but the next week we came back to take Wesleyan 50-48. On the 11th California came up from the Keystone State and went home with a victory, leaving us the short end of 53-48. West Liberty came to town on the night of the 13th and took revenge for our earlier victory and trounced us 44-43.

On February 15th we tried again against California at California but lost, 45-41.

Our southern trip started by a defeat at the hands of Marshall, 70-40. The game at Huntington was so unpleasant that Coach Colebank was forced to sever athletic relations with the Green and White, Marshall having devoted too much time to the style of play in the Buckeye league. The only victory of the trip was against Morris-Harvey, 72-18, and on the next night, February 21st, New River handed out a 40-31 beating. We finished the trip at Concord and met defeat, 44-37.

On February 25th we stepped away out of our class and played host to the strong team of Westminster and suffered for it, 61-28. It was worth a beating to watch the beautiful play of one of the leading teams in the East.

On the 2nd of March we were host to Bethany and in the best game of the season the Fighting Teachers were declared the winner, 56-51. The next evening we went to Grafton, where we encountered Broaddus-Alderson and defeat, 51-43.

March 6th found the Teachers in the eastern panhandle on a two-day trip where we divided the honors, being defeated by Potomac State 47-44, but whipping Shepherd 50-47.

The season ended on March 12th when we defeated Potomac State at Fairmont, 60-51.

The Tau Beta Iota Fraternity was founded on the campus of Fairmont College in November, 1925. Since it was the first fraternal organization to be established at Fairmont College its members have always worked together, bound by undying bonds of brotherhood, toward the common goal of higher social and scholastic standards.

Membership in the organization can be obtained only by meeting the very rigid requirements which govern prospective members in their period of pledging. Chief among these requisites are: outstanding participation in extra-curricular activities, attainment of a high scholastic average and character and reputation absolutely above reproach.

The fraternity has gained a reputation for its outstanding social events, and also for its annual, all-male musical show written and directed by members of the organization. Other activities of the year include T. B. I. Pep Campaign, Hallowe'en Party, Turkey Dance, "Mystery" Party, and annual Spring Formal. It is a well known fact on the campus that whenever a worth-while project is started a T. B. I. is always lending active support.

The Gamma Chi Chi sorority was organized on February 27, 1926, and was the first sorority on the campus. There were six charter members. At first membership was limited to Morrow Hall girls, but later it was decided to consider other girls on the campus.

We have a membership of 192, including alumnae and actives.

Our aim has been to assist the college in every way possible. We started in 1928 by helping the faculty with registration.

Traditional events which are held each year are: Fall Tea for the faculty and sorority members, Winter Formal, Founder's Day Banquet, Minstrel, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Spring Formal and Farewell Banquet.

Omicron Pi has been a pioneer in many worthwhile activities in college life and has never been a laggard in supporting those good measures introduced by others.

The Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority was founded in Farmville, Virginia, in May, 1903, and now has thirty-two chapters all over the country. The local Tau Tau Tau, second oldest sorority on the college campus, became nationally affiliated with Sigma Sigma Sigma, the oldest known national social sorority. Sigma Sigma Sigma is a professional organization, and membership does not debar a student from membership in a collegiate sorority. The aims of the sorority are to establish among its members a perpetual bond of friendship, to develop a strong womanly character and to impress them with the high standards of the teaching profession.

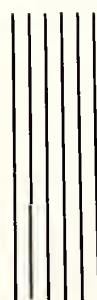

This group believes that only through friendship and fellowship can a truly democratic spirit be developed and is attempting to live up to this ideal by extending an offer of friendship and cooperation to all campus organizations.

The aims of the sorority are to establish the all-embracing desire to stand out through consideration of others. What cannot be obtained by fair methods is not desirable. Honesty, integrity and unselfishness win the end.

The Colonial tea in the fall honoring the faculty and the St. Patrick's Day tea dance in the spring honoring the other sororities and fraternities are the outstanding social functions of the year.

The Zeta Sigma Fraternity is a national organization without limits regarding the type of training offered in colleges in which chapters may be organized. It has chapters from eastern United States to Oklahoma.

The West Virginia Alpha Chapter was chartered in May, 1935, and has been actively engaged in campus activities since it was recognized by the Student Council in October, 1935.

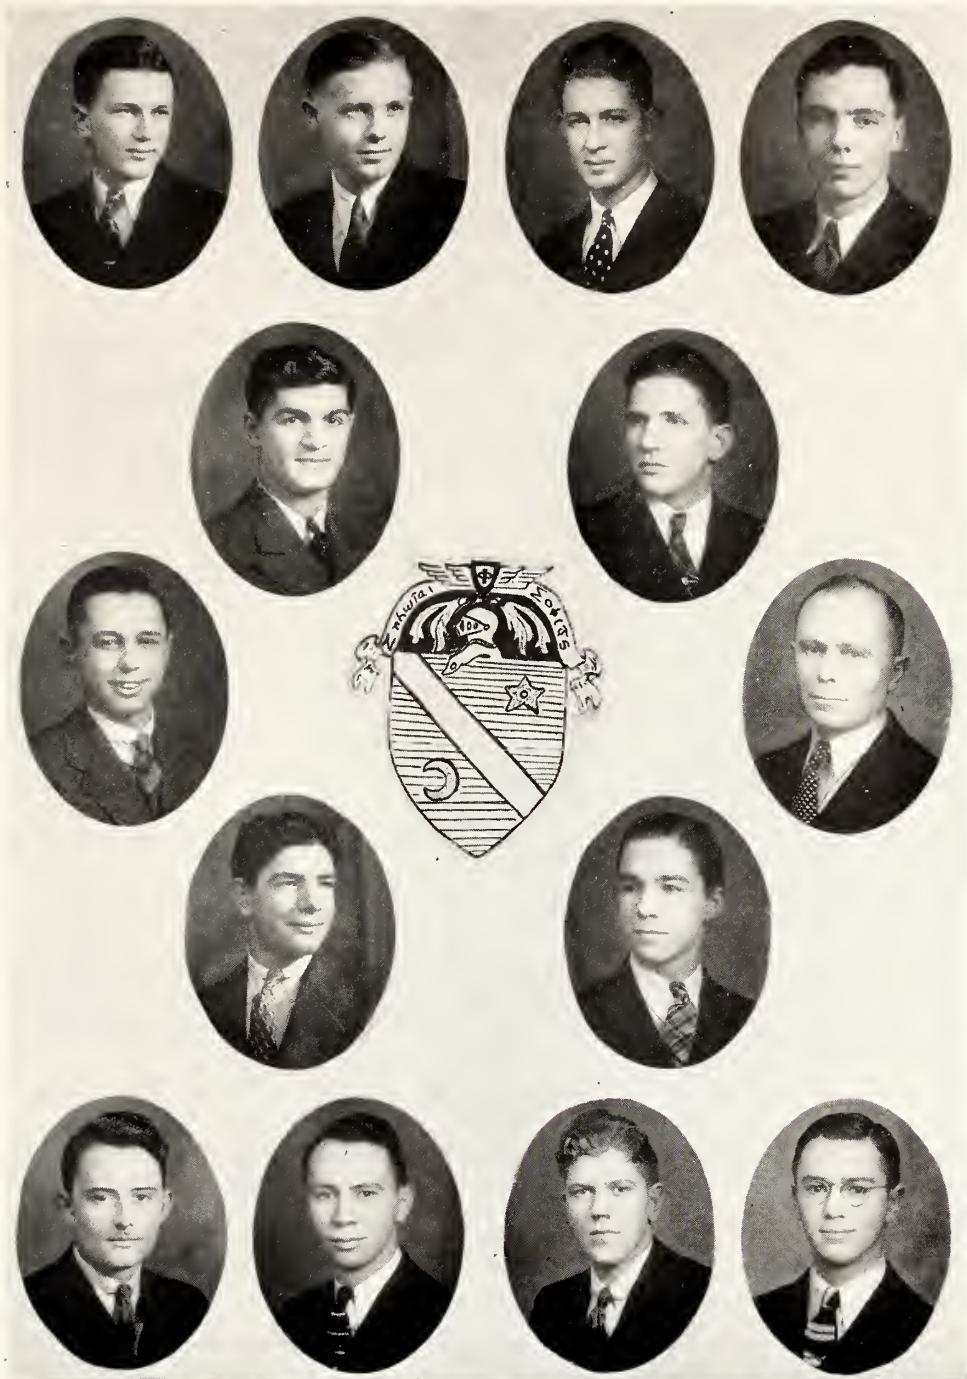

The Fraternities' earnest desire is to give a group of worthy young men the opportunity to enter into the type of organization so essential to the individual's harmonious development while in college and this it has proudly accomplished.

The fraternity membership is limited to those possessing integrity of character, scholastic achievement and those other attributes that make for fraternal association.

Student Government

Organized student activities play an important part in the life and development of the college student. Because of the demand for centralized control of student activities, arising from the growth of the student body and the increase in the number of student organizations, student government was inaugurated on the campus November 7, 1907, under the supervision of Dr. C. J. C. Bennett, president of the institution at that time.

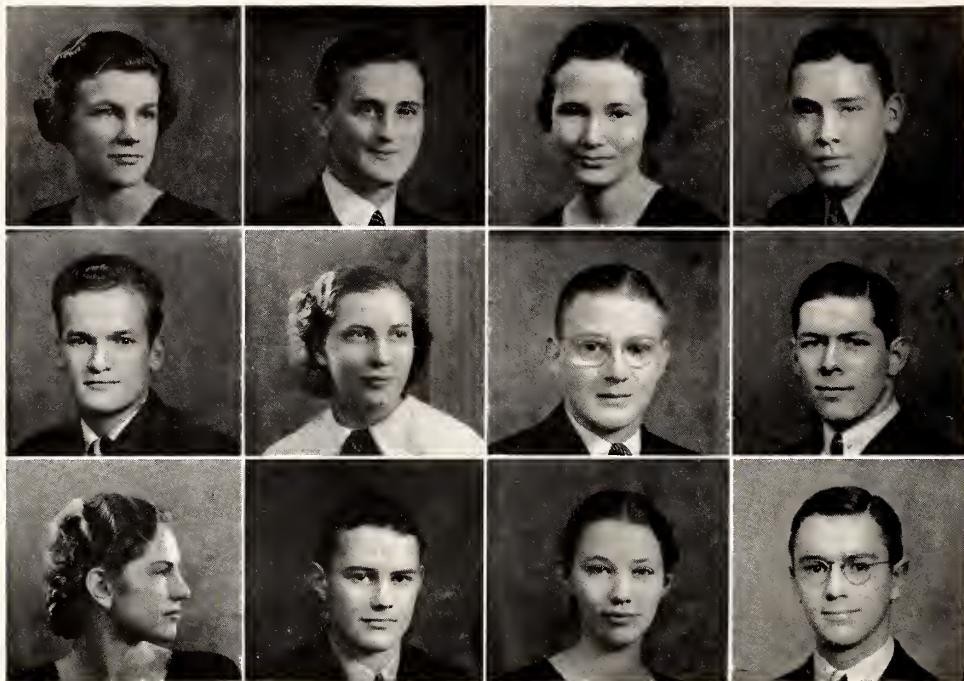

The years that mark the age of student government in our institution have witnessed a growing efficiency in its functioning, a greater harmony and closer cooperation in faculty-student relations, a pleasing development in the social attitudes of students, a higher degree of self-sufficiency and a manifestation of authoritative interest.

The organization of student government has endeavored to prove by its existence its indispensability to progress of educational privileges. It is our earnest desire to develop our government facilities to the greatest degree of efficiency and cooperation.

Debating

Debating is one of the oldest co-curricular activities on the campus at Fairmont, going back to the days of the old literary societies, when the two groups had their annual debates. Inter-collegiate debating is a long established custom at Fairmont, the present state debate cup having been named for the late Dr. I. F. Boughter, co-founder of the West Virginia Inter-collegiate Speech Association.

This year's debate squad, under the direction of Dr. B. D. Chapman, has had a unique season. An eleven-day trip, beginning on February 15, took the team to the colleges of Wooster, Ohio, Chicago University, Springfield Missouri, State Teachers College, Tahlequah (Oklahoma) State Teachers College, Oklahoma A. and M. College, Earlham College in Indiana and California Pennsylvania State Teachers College. This trip, covering 2,900 miles in all, was the first of its kind in the history of the school.

Other non-decision debates were held on the local campus with Kalamazoo, Michigan State Teachers College, Westminster (Pennsylvania) College, as well as West Liberty, Morris-Harvey, Salem, Concord, Glenville and West Virginia University. The two latter schools were met in a three-way radio discussion of the subject, "Resolved, That Congress should have the power to over-ride, by a two-thirds majority vote, decisions of the Supreme Court declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional."

At the state Speech Festival, held in Shepherdstown, Forrest Talbott and Leonard Finger entered the semi-finals in the competition, an honor shared with Shepherd College and Morris-Harvey. Members of the squad included Forrest Talbott, chairman; Harry Flesher, Leonard Finger, Evaline Taylor, Mary Virginia Dowden, Noel Shutts and Lester Moore. Flesher and Taylor are the only members graduating this year, assuring a good squad for next year.

The Columns is the student newspaper of Fairmont State Teachers College. Published weekly, it is paid for by student subscription, collected at registration time, plus advertising, both local and national.

It is affiliated with the West Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, and Miss Medora M. Mason, adviser, is now serving her second year as state adviser for the association. It is also associated with the National Scholastic Press Association, and is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press. The Collegiate Digest, rotogravure supplement, published by the latter organization, is distributed each week with The Columns.

If a prophecy may be permitted, a continued development of the college, with the continuing growth of news sources, and the keen interest the entire college has in the paper, will necessitate more frequent publication. This probably will come within the next two or three years.

Junior College Class

The class of '37 brings to an end its third year of success of college campus activities. Realizing that the end of our journey is near, the class has gripped tightly the reins for the final dash.

During the past three years the class has excelled in many fields of activity. Athletics, dramatics and social functions have had the full support of the class. Always playing a leading role in social activities on the campus this year the class sponsored its most outstanding event in the form of the Junior Prom which was the highlight of the social season.

So with optimism the Junior Class looks forward to its most distinguished year upon the campus, in which it hopes to raise the standards and ideals of Fairmont State College.

Senior College Class

The time has come for another exodus of Senior College students. Many will depart from the institution in June and many will complete their "work" in August, and thus Fairmont College will lose in the neighborhood of 100 students who will go forth into the world to embark on careers of various and sundry natures, better prepared to meet the problems which they will confront by reason of the knowledge they have gained in four years on the Fairmont College campus.

The Senior College Class of 1936 stands out as a class among classes. The seniors throughout their four years have been unusually active. Various projects have been sponsored, and have been finished, by the class of '36.

May the spirit and tradition that emanates from Fairmont College live on with you forever and may success be yours to cherish always, graduates.

Senior Normal Class

The Senior Normal Class of 1936 will soon be going forth into various parts of the state to seek positions. Many of them may not be so fortunate as to get a position, but we feel sure that they are prepared to meet the requirements and problems of teaching.

The Senior Normal Class will be remembered for its dramatic, social, athletic and scholastic ability. The loss of this large class will be keenly felt in all the varied lines of activity in which the class was so vigorously interested.

Best wishes, future teachers, and may you be successful!

Baseball

A squad of veterans reported for baseball, but they were prevented from getting the proper amount of preparation by the wet, cold spring. With a pitching staff of Santee, Snoderly and Fox, prospects for the season were happy.

Wilson, Swiger, Kudratik and Joyce composed the infield and while they were not all varsity veterans, they each had played considerable ball. Johnny Parks, a four-year man, was behind the bat.

Sampson, Jones, Fultz and Wargo saw experience in the outfield.

Rain postponed the opening of the season, but the team finally got away to an eight-game schedule which resulted in a .500 record of four victories and four losses.

With the loss of the three ranking players from the 1934 squad it was necessary for Doctor Lindley to develop a new squad from mostly green players. The poor weather during the season made practice difficult and the result was a poor season, Fairmont failing to take a match. Williamson, Ford and Witt all show promise and we hope for a much better showing next year.

Dramatics

Another highly successful program of the drama, modern and Elizabethan, was presented by the masquers during the 1935-36 season.

The year opened with the production of "A Character Intrudes." Irving Smith, a former student, directed an all-freshman cast in this comedy drama, and much excellent acting material was discovered in the process.

December saw the Masquers presenting "The Late Christopher Bean," Sydney Howard's comedy, and the classic "Macbeth" arrived in January. The Masquers also, in cooperation with the Fairmont Junior League, produced an original Arabian-Nights children's play, "Sinbad and the Twins."

In addition to their regular full-length productions, the Masquers presented a comedy, "The Purple Doorknob," which took third place in the annual West Virginia Intercollegiate One-Act Play contest at Shepherdstown. In the prize-winning cast were Kathleen Harshberger, Mary Virginia Dowden and Ruth Ann Wayman.

The Late Christopher Bean

"The Late Christopher Bean," Sidney Howard's New England comedy, secured waves of laughter from the Masquer audiences.

Paul Richmond's portrayal of an old Yankee doctor probably was most outstanding, but his excellent work was not unaccompanied by any mean. Catherine Powell, a freshman, showed excellent understanding in the role of the family retainer about whom the action centers, and the juvenile leads were charmingly filled by Genevieve Spiker and Jack Manley. Amusing work was also done by Betty Horgan and Hope Brown.

The assistant director was Mary Kathryn Wolfe.

Macbeth

"Macbeth" probably gave rise to more comment than any Masquer play of the year.

Highly efficient work was exhibited in the title role by Phillip Kennedy. Miriam Ankeny, a freshman, also attracted much notice as Lady Macbeth. Others outstanding were Rex Potter as Macduff and Brooks Higinbotham as the Porter.

Sinbad and the Twins

"Sinbad and the Twins," an original children's play, was written by two Fairmonters, Richard Parrish and Agnes Smith. Its Arabian Nights theme concerns the rival story-telling proclivities of Sinbad and the Princess Miraja.

"Sinbad" was produced in cooperation with the Junior League and the Children's Theatre Bureau of Fairmont. The sets and costumes were designed by Charles C. Vance, and the sets were painted by William Pflock

Outstanding Seniors

Each year a gold key, the highest award given at Fairmont State College, is awarded to four outstanding seniors.

The honor students are chosen because of unusual extra-curricular activities, excellence in scholarship, and high character rating. The students honored this year are Miss Catherine Algeo, Miss Elizabeth Wrick, Miss Christine Wallace, and Mr. Walter Glenn.

Miss Algeo, the first woman president of the student body in more than ten years, is a daughter of Mrs. H. H. Goudy of 611 Oliver avenue. She was vice-president of the student body in 1934, and is a member of the Student Council. Peep's Diary

Sept. 10. Up betimes and to the College, where with some 600 others did pore long over multitudinous printed Cards and Forms where upon I did find myself a duly registered Student. In looking over the incoming Freshmen did see full many a comely and shapely Female and made mental Note to investigate in due time.

Sept. 26. The weekly Howler today carried News that the College was to receive a new Physical Education building, which was the cause of much general Rejoicing.

Sept. 27. To the first Student Mix, where many were gathered to head and dance to Music played by Master Jack Beatty and his Orchestra. Much Applause given the Musicians for their rendition of the latest Tunes.

Sept. 28. To the Arena where, comfortably ensconced in the Box reserved for Pressmen, I did watch the sturdy Lads of Fairmont and West Liberty College battle in the Mud in a game of Football, Fairmont losing, 13-0.

Oct. 3. Upon rising, much overjoyed to read of the recent Triumph of the Maroon and White Band at the Forest Festival at Elkins. Also much pleased to hear of the favorable Comment given to the Pageant written, staged and directed by Mr. Lowe, with whom I am well acquainted.

Oct. 12. To the Arena again, this time to see Fairmont lose a heart-breaking game to Glenville College. The score, 6-0.

Oct. 15. To the General Meeting of the Student Body where the assembled Populace did agree to support the 1936 issue of The Mound, thereby providing an Excuse for the writing of this Diary. Later to the first Meeting of the Freshman Court where I did watch with much Satisfaction the work of messrs. Fleming, Smith, Quattro and Thomas in bringing the recalcitrant First-Year Students to Justice.

Oct. 30. Did watch today the nuptial Ceremony of Dr. Paul Opp and Miss Helen Crawford at the Presbyterian Church. So beautiful and dignified it was that I did not even feel inclined to snicker as is my Wont, when the Celebrant comes to the word "obey" in the Ritual.

Nov. 9. Forsooth, I am well nigh exhausted from the Feverishness of the day's Activity. 'Twas Dad's Day, and many and long were the events in Honor of our Fathers. A Parade, with much Bunting and Color, proceeded through the town with gusto and good cheer. Following the Parade, the mighty Football Contest took place, with Orval Hammon and Buzzy Fultz leading our sturdy lads to a 10-0 victory over Potomac State. Later, the Dance, where we did celebrate with much good Fellowship the afternoon's Victory. And so to bed.

Nov. 11. Being Armistice Day, did attend Chapel for the dedicatory Service here at school. There received the most welcome News of a Holiday which I did spend in diverse occupations of Leisure.

Nov. 12. To the Meeting of the Student Body, where that charming and talented Lady, Miss Samuelson, delivered a most inspiring Address, having for her theme, "Don't let anyone talk you out of the vision that is in your heart."

Nov. 14. Did stand at some Length today greeting many kindly Friends who attended the Reception given by the Alpha Psi Omegas in honor of Dr. Paul Opp and his recent Bride, just returned from their honeymoon.

Nov. 22. Did attend the Opening Exercises of the Social Science Council, and heard Dr. Kimball Young, of Wisconsin University, speak at length and most absorbingly on the Power of a good Press-Agent, having for his subject, "The Influence of Propaganda."

Nov. 26. To the Playhouse, where I did witness the Masquer's initial Performance, "A Character Intrudes," directed by Irving Smith and enacted by a satisfactory Freshman Cast.

Dec. 5. Did hear from a good source today that the Authorities have ordered a thorough Examination of the Auditorium, pending complete Rehabilitation. This as a result of a flying Visit from the modern Sinbad, Richard Halliburton.

Dec. 10. Again to the Playhouse, to see "The Late Christopher Bean," a Masquers Production in which Paul Richmond, Betty Horgan and Katherine Powell did give masterful Character Portrayals. A very enjoyable Evening. And so to bed again—Ho-hum!

Jan. 13-17. For the past few days the Library has been packed, comparatively quiet, and many people were seen actually studying. It seems that Semester Examinations have brought about this astounding Change.

Feb. 5. Was fascinated as I stood back-stage for the Performances of C. Ray Smith's Olivera Street Marionettes, watching the dexterous Operators handle the controls of the "little people."

Feb. 6. To Chapel this morning, to hear a splendid Choral Group from W. Va. State College. These talented negro Singers will long be remembered as one of the high spots of the Season.

Feb. 7. To the annual Homecoming Celebration, where I did see the Basketball Game at the Gymnasium (not the new one—see entry of Sept. 26) and later danced to the Music of Bob Downs, spending the Evening in much Joy and Merrymaking. Out for a bite; then on to bed.

Feb. 11. A most illuminating and inspiring Talk was given today by Miss Charl Williams, who did speak most earnestly on the Necessity of "Working Shoulder to Shoulder."

Feb. 18. "Macbeth," a tragedy by that budding young Author, Master Will Shakespeare, was enacted by the Masquers tonight with Master Phillip Kennedy betighted in the title role.

Feb. 20. To Chapel, to hear the eminent Scotch Student, Dr. Grant, in a lecture bespeaking of political and social conditions in this Country and in Europe.

Feb. 24. Master Paul Downey, one of our Orators, did orate fifty dollars worth at Morgantown today, thereby winning First Place at the Contest there.

Feb. 25. Strangely the Halls were comparatively vacant today as People made an attempt to avoid our argumentative Friends, the Debate Squad, who were responsible for the relative Peace and Quiet of the last few days. Dr. Chapman conducted a trip through the middle West. It seems that no one wanted to listen to the lengthy Anecdotes that are sure to follow such an Expedition.

Mar. 6. Had more attended Chapel today, there would have been no excuse for the writing of this journal. Miss Bessie Crystal gave her annual Talk on the outstanding events of the year, entitled "Highlights of 1936."

Mar. 17. Richard Parrish, this time collaborating with Miss Agnes Smith, an alumna of our institution, has written a new play which was tonight produced by the Masquers. A children's play, it was entitled "Sinbad and the Twins," concerning itself with the adventures of the Richard Halliburton of an earlier time, Sinbad the Sailor.

Mar. 24. To the Opening of the new Social Room where one did pirouette and feast on Tasties to celebrate the grand Occasion. A most pleasant afternoon with the members of the Student Council acting as hosts.

Mar. 30. The Student Body today did go into a huddle to emerge with Harold Smith as the People's Choice for student President next year.

Apr. 6. Prof. Lawrence A. Wallman did today hand out cigars even as the Masquers did acquire a new Star—Master L. A. Wallman, Jr.

Captain Addamae Murphy did lead the Alpha Deltas to histrionic Triumph with the initial "Show Boat," a most pleasing Revue wherein was featured an old-time Mellerdrammer, "The Fatal Necklace."

Apr. 17. The Kappa Delta Pi's did dominate the Day's Activities with their Educational Council which featured Dr. Ambrose Suhrie and Miss Bertie Backus, who made the principal addresses, following which diverse groups did sequester themselves for discussions and talk of the shop.

Then to the Junior Prom, where the charming Mistress Ellen Ayres was crowned Queen of the Junior Class. Those present professed themselves mightily bowled over by the collective pulchritude of the Queen and her Court.

Apr. 18. Lawrence Wallman did again score a hit as "The Purple Doorknob," his entry in the Collegiate One-Act Play Contest, achieved Third Place.

Apr. 22. Many Classes disbanded today at 11:00 a. m. as Students and Teachers did rise up militantly in Demonstration against War.

Apr. 23. Master Phillip Kennedy did again prove his mastery of Shakesperian Rendition to win the Shakespeare Reading Contest, celebrating of the 372nd Birthday of The Bard.

May 4. The Gammas did tonight present the traditional Minstreal, where the Auditors did laugh and applaud the many Jokes, Dances and Specialties.

May 6. Did spend the Evening at my own Hearth to write this Journal which will, I trust, be duly imprinted in the 1936 issue of The Mound.

PROGRESS

There are few fields where the necessity for progress—the demand for new ideas, is as pronounced as in the production of School Annuals. * Here in Canton we take pride in not only keeping pace, but in setting the pace for innovations and changes in this highly progressive field. * When you work with Canton you are hand in hand with experienced people, constantly on the alert to sense the wants of Annual publishers, and quick to change from the old order, and offer new and unusual ideas to progressive editors.
